The stone on my heart. Posted on September 19, 2021 by M.T. I think my mother was a witch. This is not a story about facts. This is not a report of family history or sociological study of the Craft. This is a story. It is not about facts at all. First of all, there were the books. Not the bodice-rippers and horror novels stashed in the library, but the kind that made you believe. The kind that whispered secrets and sang songs of things not meant to be known.
